

Watersheds

From where you are standing, water flows in three different directions into three different watersheds. To the south, water flows toward the Sugar River; to the north, water flows toward Black Earth Creek; to the east, water flows toward Pheasant Branch and Lake Mendota.

Three watersheds intersect Pope Farm Park. Their boundaries are shown in blue (above).

